WINE LIST

WHITE

Trebbiano (Italy)

Made from the Trebbiano grape and light yellow in colour, this is a light and fresh wine with flavours of citrus, delicate stone fruit and a lime finish.

Pinot Grigio (Italy)

A mutation of the Pinot Noir grape, this wine is a dry white that has a punchy acidity with flavours of lemon, limes, green apples and honeysuckles.

Verdicchio (Italy)

An elegant fresh wine with flavours of peach and pear from the Marche region in central Italy.

Liberfraumilch (Germany)

A sweet wine with flavours of refreshing stone fruits.

ROSE

Zinfandel (California)

Pale pink in colour with ripe strawberry, candied watermelon flavours giving a soft, clean finish.

Pinot Blush (Italy)

The delicate pink colour comes from the skins of the pink-tinged Pinot Grigio grape, giving a fresh and crisp wine with a zesty aroma and fruity flavour with notes of ripe pear and peach.

RED

Montepulciano (Italy)

A rustic wine that exhibits strong aromas and flavours of oregano, pepper and black fruits like plums and sour cherries.

Merlot (Italy)

The bouquet of this wine has a captivating freshness and delicious viscosity combining a delightful abundance of fruity tones.

Valpolicella (Italy)

Intense ruby red colour, great structure and a well-balanced finish, with a bouquet a finesse, wildberry and bitter cherry.

Chianti Classico (Italy)

Bright ruby red in colour, with garnet and deeply vinous. The taste is dry and fruity, developing to soft velvet.

Amarane (Italy)

Made in the traditional artisanal method, which requires naturally drying the grapes for a few months. It is then matured in oak casks to release rich aromas of ripe cherry and wild red berry, concluding on a note of luscious chocolate. Full bodied and superbly balanced.

Bodegas Rasilla (Spain)

Light to medium bodied with the emphasis on primary red fruit flavours. An attractive fruity structure and elegant finish.

SPARKLING

Hause Prosecco (Italy)

A light bubbly wine that is fruity and flowery with hints of tropical fruits and vanilla.

Zonin Prosecco (Italy)

A dry and pleasantly fruity wine with aromatic notes revealing an abundance of almond taste on the palate with hints of citrus.

Zonin Prosecco Rose (Italy)

A pleasant bouquet which is intense and fruity with floral notes and a hint of almond.

Zonin Prosecco Baby Bottle (Italy)
